COMMISSION ON GOVERNMENT SECURITY
WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

JUN 24 1957

Dear Mr. Houston:

I am enclosing a copy of the report of the Commission on Government Security.

Mr. Loyd Wright, Chairman of the Commission, and I are aware of the important contribution which the chief legal advisor to a department or agency head can make to the success of any loyalty or security program. We are likewise cognizant of your interest in a program that can be operated in a manner consistent with the protection of the national security and the legitimate claims of the individual to fair treatment.

The opportunity to meet and to know, through the medium of the monthly luncheons at the Pentagon, those men serving as General Counsel to the heads of the departments and agencies has been one of the most pleasant and gratifying aspects of my stay in Washington.

I shall always be mindful of your graciousness and courtesy in allowing me to break bread with you and shall look forward to a renewal of our associations.

Cordially yours,

Samuel H. Liberman
General Counsel
